Articles of Agreement indented, had, made, and fully concluded between Henry Dexter of the first part, Mary Hartley, widow, of the second part, and Richard Armitt, of the third part, reciting that there was a marriage intended, by God's permission, to be then shortly had and solemnized between the said Henry Dexter and the said Mary Hartley, and also that the said Mary was then seized in fee of, and in one messuage or tenement, and several outhouses, orchards, gardens, and plantation, thereto belonging, situate in the township of Passayunk, in the county of Philadelphia, containing 170 acres, more or less, devised to her the said Mary, by her husband, as above set forth, and that the said Henry Dexter was then seized and possessed of a considerable real and personal estate, which personal estate the said Henry Dexter did thereby covenant and agree in case the said intended marriage took effect, to apply towards the improvement of the said plantation and premises, and keep and supply the same, in and with good repair and stock of cattle, so that in case the said Henry Dexter should happen to die in the lifetime of the said Mary, the said plantation was to be left in a much better state and condition than it then was. Together with a stock of cattle thereon, of double the value it then had, to hold the same together with one moiety of all the real and personal estate of him, the said Henry Dexter, to her, the said Mary Hartley and her assigns, for and during the term of her natural life. And the said Mary Hartley in consideration of the premises, and of the sum of five Shillings, did grant and convey unto the said Richard Armitt and his heirs, "All that the said mesuage or tenement and plantation with all the improvements thereon erected and erecting, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any way appertaining," to the several uses, intents and purposes, and subject to the proviso thereafter mentioned and contained concerning the same, (that is to say) to the use of her, the said Mary Hartley and her heirs until the said intended marriage should take effect, and from and after the celebration of the said marriage, then to the use of him, the said Henry Dexter and the said Mary, his then intended wife, for and during the term of their natural lives, and the life of the longest liver of them, and from and after their decease, then to the use of such child or children as shall be begotten by the said Henry on the body of her, the said Mary, and their heirs and assigns forever. But if the said Mary should happen to die, leaving no such issue, then to the use and behoof of him, the said Henry Dexter, his heirs and assigns forever. Provided, nevertheless, and it was thereby cord.

At an Orphans' Court for the City and County of Philadelphia, held at Philadelphia, the 23d day of May, A. D. 1800, the Petition of Thomas Leiper and William Levis was presented and read, reciting the aforesaid decease of the said George Gray, leaving surviving him, the aforesaid children and grand-children, and further stating that the said George Gray, at the time of his death was seized and possessed in his demesne, as of fee, of the several tracts of land, together with their appurtenances, in a schedule to said Petition annexed, particularly described, situate in the city and county of Philadelphia; that by the law of the land one tenth part of the premises aforesaid, the whole into ten equal parts to be divided, appertained and belonged to the children of the said George Gray, the son of the Intestate, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to the said Robert Gray, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to Thomas Leiper and Elizabeth, his wife, in right of the said Elizabeth, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to Matthew Gray and William Gray, children of William Gray, a son of the Intestate, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to Curtis Grubb, George Grubb, and Martha Grubb, children of Mary Grubb, a daughter of the Intestate, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to James Knowles and Margaret, his wife, in right of the said Margaret, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to George Morton and Rebecca, his wife, in right of the said Rebecca, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to Evan W. Thomas and Martha, his wife, in right of the said Martha, one other equal tenth part appertained and belonged to William Levis and Sarah, his wife, in right of the said Sarah, and the remaining equal tenth part appertained and belonged to Ann Gray.

That the said premises had never been divided among the several heirs. The Petitioners therefore prayed the Court to appoint seven or more persons, indifferently chosen on behalf, and with the consent of the parties, to award an inquest, to view the said land, and if they found the same could be divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, then to make partition of the said premises, with the appurtenances, to and among the children of the Intestate, or their legal representatives, having respect to the quantity and quality of the said land, and make report, &c.

Thereupon the court approved of and appointed the following persons, named and chosen by the several parties concerned in the said Partitions, to wit: Israel Israel, Jacob Sorrell, Philip Price, Nathan Sellers, John Dunlap, Peter Wickoff, and William Rose, an Inquest to view the said lands, and if they found that the same could be divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, then to make partition of the same among the several parties entitled thereto in the said partition named, agreeably to act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

Recorded among the records of the said Orphans' Court, in Orphans' Court Docket, No. 19, page 29, &c.

The following described tract or piece of land is included (inter alia) in the aforesaid schedule of the real estate, of which the said George Gray died seized, annexed to the above-mentioned petition (a copy of which schedule is recorded with the above proceedings) viz: Description of a tract of land belonging to the said estate, situate in Passayunk Township; beginning at a creek near Schuylkill, thence by land of Depuy Bringham, Reece, Huckle and Watsmouth, S. 50° , 40 minutes, E. 323 perches, to a corner of Sinkfelter's land, thence by the same and the land of Cenas and Baker, S. 39° , 20 minutes, W. 86 perches to a corner, thence, N. 51° , 40 minutes, W. 76.4 by land late of Capt. Mason and others, thence by the same and others N. $27\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$, W. 56 perches to a corner, thence $55\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$, W. 58 perches, thence N. 49° , 24 minutes, W. 41 perches, by land said to belong to William Sheaff, thence by the same, S. 25° , W. 9.5 perches to a corner by a road, thence crossing the same, and by land of General Harmer, N. 76° , W. 97 perches to Schuylkill aforesaid, thence up the said river the several courses thereof 195 perches, thence $57\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$, W. 9.65 perches to the place of beginning, containing about 195 acres.

At an Orphans' Court for the City and County of Philadelphia, held at Philadelphia, the 21st day of August, 1801, an Inquest and Partition of the Real Estate of George Gray, deceased, was presented, duly executed, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, 1801, wherein and whereby Israel Israel, Jacob Sorrell, Philip Price, Nathan Sellers, John Dunlap, Peter Wickoff and William Rose, named and appointed in and by the said order of Court above set forth, to make Partition of several tracts of land, and their appurtenances, situate, lying, and being in the City and County of Philadelphia, late the Estate of George Gray, deceased, as aforesaid, did certify that in pursuance of the said order, they together in their proper persons, on the day of June, in the year 1800, went to the said several tracts of land in the said order mentioned and referred to, (all the parties interested in the same being present) and on the view of the same, having due regard to the value of the said several tracts of land, the same, so far as they could be divided without injury to the whole, did part and divide among the co-heirs of the said George Gray, deceased, according to their respective estates and interests therein, and into the fifty acres of land, part of the farm on the east side of Schuylkill, leaving open a lane on the north east side thereof, (subject to the privilege of using the said lane to the heirs and assigns of Sarah Levis thereafter allotted and assigned) the whole particularly described in the Draft threunto annexed, marked "No. 8," unto Rebecca Morton (in the said order mentioned and referred to), to be held by her, the said Rebecca Morton, her heirs and assigns in severalty, they had allotted and assigned, and that they had parted and divided, distributed and disposed of all the said several tracts of land in the said order mentioned and referred to, so that neither of the said parties interested had more in their respective shares than they ought or to them of right respectively belonged.

Thereupon the Court confirmed the said return nisi. Recorded among the Records of the Orphans' Court, in the Orphans' Court Docket, No. 19, page 253, &c.

The original Drafts or Plans, before referred to, of the foregoing tract, will be found among the Parchment Plans and papers remaining on file in the office of the Orphans' Court for the City and County of Philadelphia. }
